

SUSPENSION AND PERMANENT EXCLUSION POLICY

The OHC&AT Board of Trustees has agreed this Policy and as such, it applies across all OHCAT Academies – 9th December 2022.

Suspension and Permanent Exclusion Policy

1. AIMS

Orchard Hill College and Academy Trust (OHC&AT) is a family of providers, comprising Orchard Hill College (OHC) and Orchard Hill College Academy Trust (OHCAT), working together for mutual benefit. We believe that together we can offer the very best for our pupils and students and for their local communities.

We are committed to following all statutory exclusions procedures to ensure that every child receives an education in a safe and caring environment.

This policy deals with the policy and practice which details the use of suspension and exclusion within OHCAT Academies, and is intended to demonstrate the shared commitment of all members of the OHCAT community to:

- Ensure that the exclusions process is applied fairly and consistently.
- Help pupils/students, parents, staff and governors understand the exclusions process.
- Ensure that pupils/students in school are safe and happy.
- Prevent pupils/students from becoming NEET (not in education, employment or training).
- Ensure all suspensions and permanent exclusions are carried out lawfully.
- Reduce the need to use suspension or exclusion as a sanction.

A note on off-rolling

OHCAT is aware that off-rolling is unlawful. Ofsted defines off-rolling as:

“The practice of removing a pupil from the school roll without a formal, permanent exclusion or by encouraging a parent to remove their child from the school roll, when the removal is primarily in the interests of the school rather than in the best interests of the pupil.”

We will not suspend or exclude pupils/students unlawfully by directing them off site, or not allowing pupils/students to attend school:

- Without following the statutory procedure or formally recording the event, e.g. sending them home to 'cool off'.
- Because they have special educational needs and/or a disability (SEND) that the school feels unable to support.
- Due to poor academic performance.
- Because they haven't met a specific condition, such as attending a reintegration meeting.
- By exerting undue influence on a parent to encourage them to remove their child from the school.

2. LEGISLATION AND STATUTORY GUIDANCE

This policy is based on statutory guidance from the Department for Education: Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement.

It is based on the following legislation, which outlines schools' powers to exclude pupils:

- Section 51a of the Education Act 2002, as amended by the Education Act 2011
- The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012
- In addition, the policy is based on:
- Part 7, chapter 2 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which sets out parental responsibility for excluded pupils
- Section 579 of the Education Act 1996, which defines 'school day'
- The Education \(Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils\) \(England\) Regulations 2007, as amended by The Education \(Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils\) \(England\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 2014
- The Equality Act 2010
- Children and Families Act 2014

This policy complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

3. DEFINITIONS

Suspension – when a pupil/student is removed from the school for a fixed period. This was previously referred to as a 'fixed-term exclusion'.

Permanent exclusion – when a pupil/student is removed from the school permanently and taken off the school roll. This is sometimes referred to as an 'exclusion'.

Off-site direction – when a pupil/student is required to attend another education setting temporarily, to improve their behaviour.

Parent – any person who has parental responsibility and any person who has care of the child.

Managed move – when a pupil/student is transferred to another school permanently. All parties, including parents and the admission authority for the new school, should consent before a managed move occurs.

4. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 The Principal

Deciding whether to suspend or exclude

Only the Principal, or acting Principal, can suspend or permanently exclude a pupil/student from school on disciplinary grounds. The decision can be made in respect of behaviour inside or outside of school. The Principal will only use permanent exclusion as a last resort.

A decision to suspend or exclude a pupil/student will be taken only:

- In response to serious or persistent breaches of the school's behaviour policy, and
- If allowing the pupil/student to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of others.

Before deciding whether to suspend or exclude a pupil/student, the Principal will:

- Consider all the relevant facts and evidence on the balance of probabilities, including whether the incident(s) leading to the exclusion were provoked.
- Allow the pupil/student to give their version of events.
- Consider whether the pupil/student has special educational needs (SEN).
- Consider whether the pupil/student is especially vulnerable (e.g. they have a social worker, or is a looked-after child (LAC)).
- Consider whether all alternative solutions have been explored, such as off-site direction or managed moves.

The Principal will consider the views of the pupil/student, in light of their age and understanding, before deciding to suspend or exclude, unless it would not be appropriate to do so.

Pupils/student who need support to express their views will be allowed to have their views expressed through an advocate, such as a parent or social worker.

The Principal will not reach their decision until they have heard from the pupil/student, and will inform the pupil of how their views were taken into account when making the decision.

Informing parents

If a pupil/student is at risk of suspension or exclusion the Principal will inform the parents as early as possible, in order to work together to consider what factors may be affecting the pupil/student's behaviour, and what further support can be put in place to improve the behaviour.

If the Principal decides to suspend or exclude a pupil/student, the parents will be informed of the period of the suspension or exclusion and the reason(s) for it, without delay.

The parents will also be provided with the following information in writing, without delay:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or exclusion.
- The length of the suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent.
- Information about parents' right to make representations about the suspension or permanent exclusion to the governing board and how the pupil may be involved in this.
- How any representations should be made.
- Where there is a legal requirement for the Local Governing Body (LGB) to hold a meeting to consider the reinstatement of a pupil/student, and that parents (or the pupil/student if they are 18 years old) have a right to attend the meeting, be represented at the meeting (at their own expense) and to bring a friend.

The Principal will also notify parents without delay and by the end of the afternoon session on the first day their child is suspended or permanently excluded, that:

- For the first 5 school days of an exclusion (or until the start date of any alternative provision or the end of the suspension, where this is earlier), the parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without a good reason. This will include specifying on which days this duty applies.
- Parents may be given a fixed penalty notice or prosecuted if they fail to do this.

If alternative provision is being arranged, the following information will be included, if possible:

- The start date for any provision of full-time education that has been arranged.
- The start and finish times of any such provision, including the times for morning and afternoon sessions, where relevant.
- The address at which the provision will take place.
- Any information the pupil/student needs in order to identify the person they should report to on the first day.

If the Principal does not have the all the information about the alternative provision arrangements by the end of the afternoon session on the first day of the suspension or permanent exclusion, they can provide the information at a later date, without delay and no later than 48 hours before the provision is due to start.

The only exception to this is where alternative provision is to be provided before the sixth day of a suspension or permanent exclusion, in which case the school reserves the right to provide the information with less than 48 hours' notice, with parents' consent.

Informing the Local Governing Body

The Principal will, without delay, notify the LGB of:

- Any permanent exclusion, including when a suspension is followed by a decision to permanently exclude a pupil/student.
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion which would result in the pupil/student being suspended or permanently excluded for a total of more than 5 school days (or more than 10 lunchtimes or part days) in a term.
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion which would result in the pupil/student missing a National Curriculum test or public exam.

The Principal will notify the LGB once per term of any other suspensions of which they have not previously been notified, and the number of suspensions and exclusions which have been cancelled, including the circumstances and reasons for the cancellation.

Informing the Local Authority (LA)

The Principal will notify the LA of all suspensions and permanent exclusions without delay, regardless of the length of a suspension.

The notification will include:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or permanent exclusion.

- The length of a suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent.

For a permanent exclusion, if the pupil/student lives outside the LA in which the school is located, the Principal will also, without delay, inform the pupil/student's 'home authority' of the exclusion and the reason(s) for it.

Informing the pupil/student's social worker and/or virtual school head (VSH)

If a:

- Pupil/student with a social worker is at risk of suspension or permanent exclusion, the Principal will inform the social worker as early as possible.
- Pupil/student who is a looked-after child (LAC) is at risk of suspension or exclusion, the Principal will inform the VSH as early as possible.

This is in order to work together to consider what factors may be affecting the pupil/student's behaviour, and what further support can be put in place to improve the behaviour.

If the Principal decides to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil/student with a social worker / a pupil/student who is looked after, they will inform the pupil/student's social worker / the VSH, as appropriate, without delay, that:

- They have decided to suspend or permanently exclude the pupil/student.
- The reason(s) for the decision.
- The length of the suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent.
- The suspension or permanent exclusion affects the pupil/student's ability to sit a National Curriculum test or public exam (where relevant).

The social worker / VSH will be invited to any meeting of the LGB about the suspension or permanent exclusion. This is so they can provide advice on how the pupil/student's background and/or circumstances may have influenced the circumstances of their suspension or permanent exclusion. The social worker should also help ensure safeguarding needs and risks and the pupil/student's welfare are taken into account.

Cancelling suspensions and permanent exclusions

The Principal may cancel a suspension or permanent exclusion that has already begun, but this will only be done where it has not yet been reviewed by the governing board. Where there is a cancellation:

- The parents, LGB and LA will be notified without delay.
- Where relevant, any social worker and VSH will notified without delay.
- Parents will be offered the opportunity to meet with the Principal to discuss the cancellation.
- As referred to above, the Principal will report to the LGB once per term on the number of cancellations.
- The pupil/student will be allowed back in school.

Providing education during the first 5 days of a suspension or permanent exclusion

During the first 5 days of a suspension, if the pupil/student is not attending alternative (AP) provision, the Principal will take steps to ensure that achievable and accessible work is set and marked for the pupil/student. Online pathways such as Google Classroom or Oak Academy may be used for this. As a specialist Trust, all of our schools work with pupils/students with SEND and the Principal will therefore make sure that all necessary reasonable adjustments are made to the educational provision for a pupil/student who has been suspended or excluded.

If the pupil/student is looked after or if they have a social worker, the school will work with the LA to arrange AP from the first day following the suspension or permanent exclusion. Where this isn't possible, the school will take reasonable steps to set and mark work for the pupil/student, including the use of online pathways.

4.2 The Local Governing Body

Please also refer to Appendix B: "A summary of the governing board's duties to review the headteacher's exclusion decision", taken from the statutory DfE guidance "Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement".

Considering suspensions and permanent exclusions

Responsibilities regarding exclusions are delegated to the Suspension and Exclusion Panel, consisting of three Governors or Trustees of the Academy Trust.

The Suspension and Exclusion Panel has a duty to consider parents' representations about a suspension or permanent exclusion. It has a duty to consider the reinstatement of a suspended or permanently excluded pupil/student (see sections 5 and 6) in certain circumstances.

Within 14 days of receiving a request, the Board of Trustees will provide the secretary of state with information about any suspensions or exclusions within the last 12 months.

For any suspension of more than 5 school days, the LGB will arrange suitable full-time education for the pupil/student. This provision will begin no later than the sixth day of the suspension.

The LGB does not have to arrange such provision for pupil/student in their final year of compulsory education who do not have any further public exams to sit.

Monitoring and analysing suspensions and exclusions data

The LGB will challenge and evaluate the data on the school's use of suspension, exclusion, off-site direction to alternative provision and managed moves.

The LGB will consider:

- How effectively and consistently the school's behaviour policy is being implemented.
- The school register and absence codes.

- Instances where pupils receive repeat suspensions.
- Interventions in place to support pupils/students at risk of suspension or permanent exclusion.
- Any variations in the rolling average of permanent exclusions, to understand why this is happening, and to make sure they are only used when necessary.
- Timing of moves and permanent exclusions, and whether there are any patterns, including any indications which may highlight where policies or support are not working.
- The characteristics of suspended and permanently excluded pupils/students, and why this is taking place.
- Whether the placements of pupils/students directed off-site into alternative provision are reviewed at sufficient intervals to assure that the education is achieving its objectives and that pupils/students are benefiting from it.
- The cost implications of directing pupils/students off-site.

4.3 The Local Authority (LA)

For permanent exclusions, the LA will arrange suitable full-time education to begin no later than the sixth school day after the first day of the exclusion.

For pupils/students who are LAC or have social workers, the LA and the school will work together to arrange suitable full-time education to begin from the first day of the exclusion.

5. CONSIDERING THE REINSTATEMENT OF A PUPIL/STUDENT

The Suspension and Exclusion Panel will consider and decide on the reinstatement of a suspended or permanently excluded pupil/student within 15 school days of receiving the notice of the suspension or exclusion if:

- The exclusion is permanent;
- It is a suspension which would bring the pupil/student's total number of days out of school to more than 15 in a term; or
- It would result in a pupil/student missing a public exam or National Curriculum test.

Where the pupil/student has been suspended, and the suspension does not bring the pupil/student's total number of days of suspension to more than 5 in a term, the Suspension and Exclusion Panel must consider any representations made by parents. However, it is not required to arrange a meeting with parents and it cannot direct the Principal to reinstate the pupil/student.

Where the pupil/student has been suspended for more than 5 days, but less than 16 days, in a single term, and the parents make representations to the board, the Suspension and Exclusion Panel will consider and decide on the reinstatement of a suspended pupil/student within 50 school days of receiving notice of the suspension. If the parents do not make representations, the Panel is not required to meet and it cannot direct the Principal to reinstate the pupil/student.

Where a suspension or permanent exclusion would result in a pupil/student missing a public exam or National Curriculum test, the Suspension and Exclusion Panel will, as far as reasonably practicable, consider and decide on the reinstatement of the pupil/student before the date of the exam or test. If this is not practicable, the Suspension and Exclusion Panel may consider the suspension or permanent exclusion and decide whether or not to reinstate the pupil/student.

The following parties will be invited to a meeting of the Suspension and Exclusion Panel and allowed to make representations or share information:

- Parents, or the pupil/student if they are 18 or over (and, where requested, a representative or friend).
- The pupil/student, if they are aged 17 or younger and it would be appropriate to their age and understanding (and, where requested, a representative or friend).
- The Principal.
- The pupil/student's social worker, if they have one.
- The VSH, if the pupil/student is looked after.

The Suspension and Exclusion Panel will try to arrange the meeting within the statutory time limits set out above and must try to have it at a time that suits all relevant parties. However, its decision will not be invalid simply on the grounds that it was not made within these time limits.

The Suspension and Exclusion Panel can either:

- Decline to reinstate the pupil/student, or
- Direct the reinstatement of the pupil/student immediately, or on a particular date (except in cases where the Panel cannot do this – see earlier in this section).

In reaching a decision, the Suspension and Exclusion Panel will consider:

- Whether the decision to suspend or permanently exclude was lawful, reasonable, and procedurally fair.
- Whether the Principal followed their legal duties.
- The welfare and safeguarding of the pupil/student and their peers.
- Any evidence that was presented to the Panel.

They will decide whether or not a fact is true 'on the balance of probabilities'.

Minutes will be taken of the meeting, and a record kept of the evidence that was considered. The outcome will also be recorded on the pupil/student's educational record, and copies of relevant papers will be kept with this record.

The Suspension and Exclusion Panel will notify, in writing, the following stakeholders of its decision, along with reasons for its decision, without delay:

- The parents, or the pupil/student, if they are 18 or older.
- The Principal.
- The pupil/student's social worker, if they have one.
- The VSH, if the pupil is looked after.
- The local authority.
- The pupil/student's home authority, if it differs from the school's.

Where an exclusion is permanent and the Suspension and Exclusion Panel has decided not to reinstate the pupil/student, the notification of decision will also include the following:

- The fact that it is a permanent exclusion.
- Notice of parents' right to ask for the decision to be reviewed by an independent review panel.
- The date by which an application for an independent review must be made (15 school days from the date on which notice in writing of the Panel's decision is given to parents).
- The name and address to which an application for a review and any written evidence should be submitted.
- That any application should set out the grounds on which it is being made and that, where appropriate, it should include reference to how the pupil/student's special educational needs (SEN) are considered to be relevant to the permanent exclusion.
- That, regardless of whether the excluded pupil/student has recognised SEN, parents have a right to require OHCAT to appoint an SEN expert to advise the review panel.
- Details of the role of the SEN expert and that there would be no cost to parents for this appointment.
- That parents must make clear if they wish for an SEN expert to be appointed in any application for a review.
- That parents may, at their own expense, appoint someone to make written and/or oral representations to the panel, and parents may also bring a friend to the review.
- That, if parents believe that the permanent exclusion has occurred as a result of unlawful discrimination, they may make a claim under the Equality Act 2010 to the first-tier tribunal (special educational needs and disability), in the case of disability discrimination, or the county court, in the case of other forms of discrimination. Also that any claim of discrimination made under these routes should be lodged within 6 months of the date on which the discrimination is alleged to have taken place.

6. INDEPENDENT REVIEW

If parents apply for an independent review within the legal timeframe, OHCAT will arrange for an independent panel to review the decision of the Suspension and Exclusion Panel not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil/student.

Applications for an independent review must be made within 15 school days of notice being given to the parents by the Suspension and Exclusion Panel of its decision to not reinstate the pupil/student or, if after this time, within 15 school days of the final determination of a claim of discrimination under the Equality Act 2010 regarding the permanent exclusion.

A panel of 3 or 5 members will be constituted with representatives from each of the categories below. Where a 5-member panel is constituted, 2 members will come from the school governor category and 2 members will come from the Principal category. At all times during the review process there must be the required representation on the panel.

- A lay member to chair the panel who has not worked in any school in a paid capacity, disregarding any experience as a school governor or volunteer.
- Current or former school governors who have served as a governor for at least 12 consecutive months in the last 5 years, provided they have not been teachers or Principals during this time.
- Principals or individuals who have been a Principal within the last 5 years.

A person may not serve as a member of a review panel if they:

- Are a Trustee of OHCAT or a governor of the excluding school.
- Are the Principal of the excluding school, or have held this position in the last 5 years.
- Are an employee of OHCAT, or the governing board, of the excluding school (unless they are employed as a Principal at another school)
- Have, or at any time have had, any connection with OHCAT, the excluding school, Board of Trustees, LGB, parents or pupil/student, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their impartiality.
- Have not had the required training within the last 2 years (see appendix 1 for what training must cover).

The panel must consider the interests and circumstances of the pupil/student, including the circumstances in which the pupil/student was permanently excluded, and have regard to the interests of other pupils/students and people working at the school.

Taking into account the pupil/student's age and understanding, the pupil/student or their parents will be made aware of their right to attend and participate in the review meeting and the pupil/student should be enabled to make representations on their own behalf, should they desire to.

Where a SEN expert is present, the panel must seek and have regard to the SEN expert's view of how SEN may be relevant to the pupil/student's permanent exclusion.

Where a social worker is present, the panel must have regard to any representation made by the social worker of how the pupil/student's experiences, needs, safeguarding risks and/or welfare may be relevant to the pupil/student's permanent exclusion.

Where a VSH is present, the panel must have regard to any representation made by the social worker of how any of the child's background, education and safeguarding needs were considered by the Principal in the lead up to the permanent exclusion, or are relevant to the pupil/student's permanent exclusion.

Following its review, the independent panel will decide to do one of the following:

- Uphold the decision of the Suspension and Exclusion Panel.
- Recommend that the Suspension and Exclusion Panel reconsiders reinstatement.
- Quash the Suspension and Exclusion Panel's decision and direct that they reconsider reinstatement (only if it judges that the decision was flawed).

New evidence may be presented, though the school cannot introduce new reasons for the permanent exclusion or the decision not to reinstate. The panel must disregard any new reasons that are introduced.

In deciding whether the decision was flawed, and therefore whether to quash the decision not to reinstate, the panel must only take account of the evidence that was available to the Suspension and Exclusion Panel at the time of making its decision. This includes any evidence that the panel considers would, or should, have been available to the Suspension and Exclusion Panel and that it ought to have considered if it had been acting reasonably.

If evidence is presented that the panel considers it is unreasonable to expect the Suspension and Exclusion Panel to have been aware of at the time of its decision, the panel can take account of the evidence when deciding whether to recommend that the governing board reconsider reinstatement.

The panel's decision can be decided by a majority vote. In the case of a tied decision, the chair has the casting vote.

Once the panel has reached its decision, the panel will notify all parties in writing without delay.

This notification will include:

- The panel's decision and the reasons for it.
- Where relevant, details of any financial readjustment or payment to be made if the Suspension and Exclusion Panel does not subsequently decide to offer to reinstate the pupil/student within 10 school days.
- Any information that the panel has directed the Suspension and Exclusion Panel to place on the pupil/student's educational record.

7. SCHOOL REGISTERS

A pupil/student's name will be removed from the school admission register if:

- 15 school days have passed since the parents were notified of the Suspension and Exclusion Panel's decision to not reinstate the pupil/student and no application has been made for an independent review panel, or
- The parents have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent review panel

Where an application for an independent review has been made within 15 school days, the school will wait until that review has concluded before removing a pupil/student's name from the register.

While the pupil/student's name remains on the school's admission register, the pupil/student's attendance will still be recorded appropriately. Where alternative provision has been made for an excluded pupil/student and they attend it, code B (education off-site) or code D (dual registration) will be used on the attendance register.

Where excluded pupils/students are not attending alternative provision, code E (absent) will be used.

Making a return to the LA

Where a pupil/student's name is to be removed from the school admissions register because of a permanent exclusion, the school will make a return to the LA. The return will include:

- The pupil/student's full name.
- The full name and address of any parent with whom the pupil/student normally resides.
- At least one telephone number at which any parent with whom the pupil/student normally resides can be contacted in an emergency.
- The grounds upon which their name is to be deleted from the admissions register (i.e., permanent exclusion).
- Details of the new school the pupil/student will attend, including the name of that school and the first date when the pupil/student attended or is due to attend there, if the parents have told the school the pupil/student is moving to another school.
- Details of the pupil/student's new address, including the new address, the name of the parent(s) the pupil/student is going to live there with, and the date when the pupil/student is going to start living there, if the parents have informed the school that the pupil/student is moving house.

This return must be made as soon as the grounds for removal is met and no later than the removal of the pupil/student's name.

8. RETURNING FROM A SUSPENSION

8.1 Reintegration strategy

Following suspension, the school will put in place a strategy to help the pupil/student reintegrate successfully into school life and full-time education.

Where necessary, the school will work with third-party organisations to identify whether the pupil/student has any unmet special educational and/or health needs.

Reintegration meetings offer an opportunity to reset expectations and reaffirm the principles of positive behaviour support within the school. The school will work with the pupil/student to set specific goals in order to help them avoid the behaviour that led to exclusion. It is best practice to ensure that the pupil/student's conduct and behaviour are closely monitored for the immediate period following return from a fixed term exclusion.

If a pupil/student has served a suspension period of greater than five days or an accumulation of suspensions exceeding five days, a support plan will be drawn up. This will be agreed between the school, the pupil/student and parents/carers.

Part-time timetables will not be used as a tool to manage behaviour.

This strategy will be regularly reviewed and adapted where necessary throughout the reintegration process in collaboration with the pupil/student, parents, and other relevant parties.

8.2 Reintegration meetings

The school will explain the reintegration strategy to the pupil/student in a reintegration meeting before or on the pupil/student's return to school. During the meeting the school will communicate to the pupil/student that they are getting a fresh start and that they are a valued member of the school community.

The pupil/student, parents, a member of senior staff, and any other relevant staff will be invited to attend the meeting.

The meeting can proceed without the parents in the event that they cannot or do not attend.

The school expects all returning pupil/student and their parents to attend their reintegration meeting, but pupil/student who do not attend will not be prevented from returning to the classroom.

9. MONITORING ARRANGEMENTS

The school will collect data on the following:

- Attendance, permanent exclusions and suspensions.
- Use of pupil referral units, off-site directions and managed moves.
- Anonymous surveys of pupils/students, staff, governors/trustees and other stakeholders on their perceptions and experiences.

The data will be analysed annually reported back to the Local Governing Body.

The data will be analysed from a variety of perspectives including:

- At school level
- By age group
- By time of day/week/term
- By protected characteristic

The school will use the results of this analysis to make sure it is meeting its duties under the Equality Act 2010. If any patterns or disparities between groups of pupils/students are identified by this analysis, the school will review its policies in order to tackle it.

OHCAT will work with our academies to consider this data, and to analyse whether there are patterns across the Trust, recognising that numbers in any one academy may be too low to allow for meaningful statistical analysis.

This policy will be reviewed by the CEO and/or Deputy CEO not less than every two years, or as required in accordance with changes to statutory guidance.

APPENDIX 1: Independent review panel

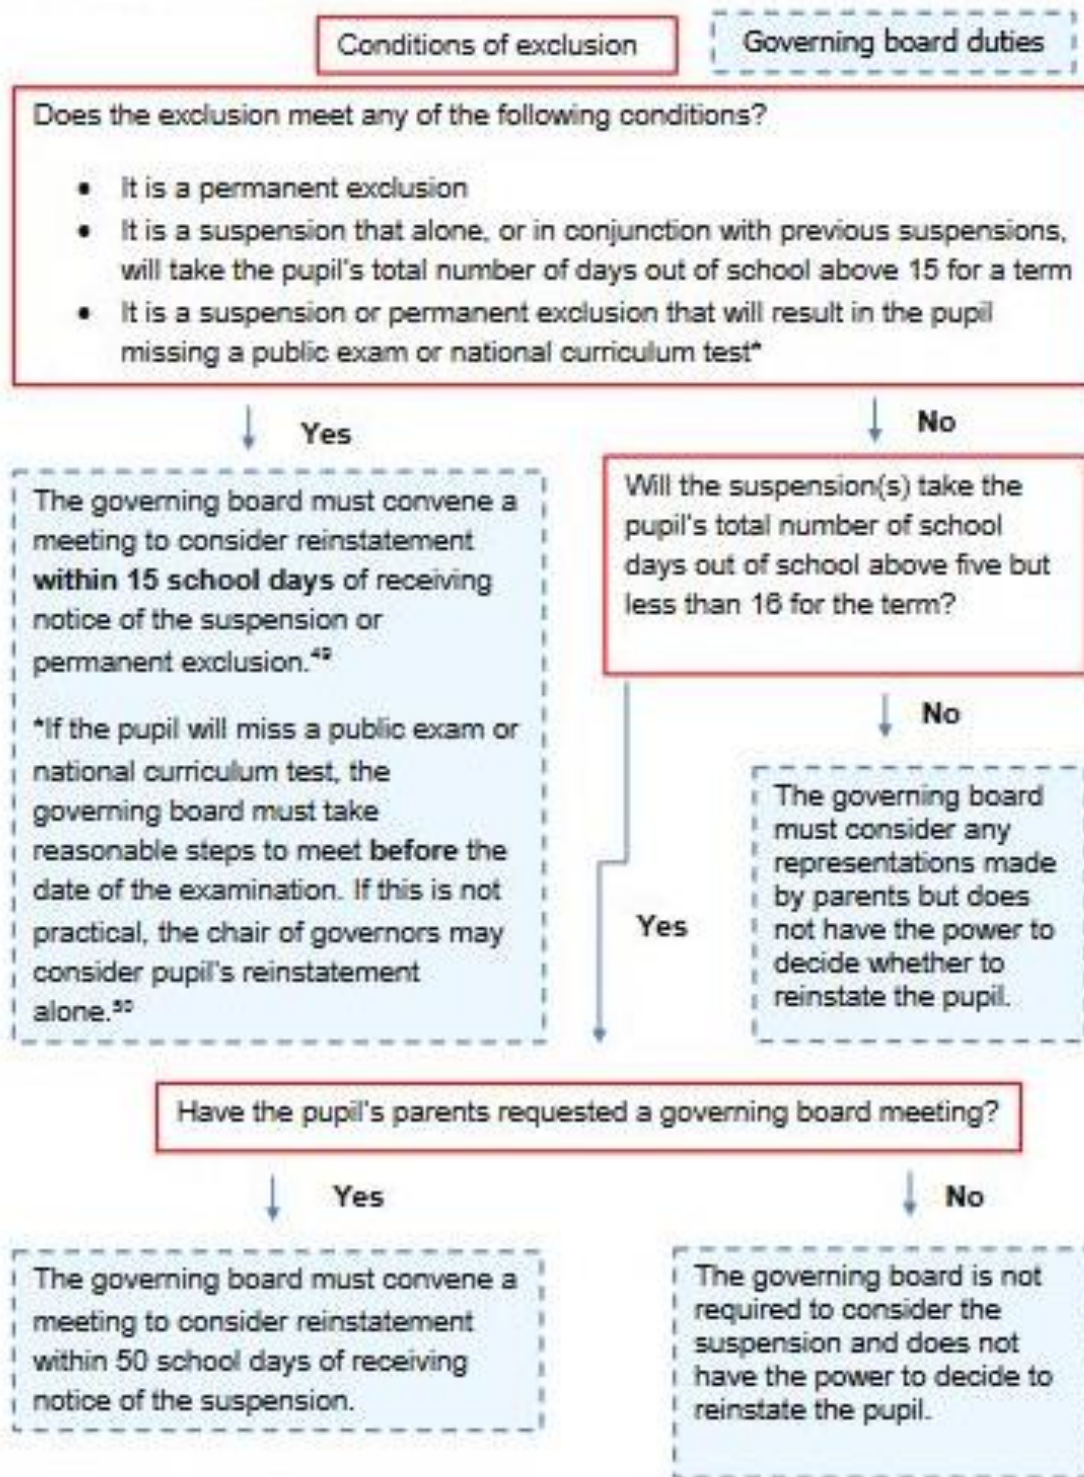

OHCAT may choose to contract the services of another provider or a local authority school services provider to run the independent review panel.

OHCAT must make sure that all members of an independent review panel and clerks have received training within the two years prior to the date of the review.

Training must have covered:

- The requirements of the primary legislation, regulations and statutory guidance governing suspensions and permanent exclusions on disciplinary grounds, which would include an understanding of how the principles applicable in an application for judicial review relate to the panel's decision making.
- The need for the panel to observe procedural fairness and the rules of natural justice
- The role of the chair and the clerk of a review panel.
- The duties of Principals, governing boards and the panel under the Equality Act 2010.
- The effect of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 (acts of public authorities unlawful if not compatible with certain human rights) and the need to act in a manner compatible with human rights protected by that Act.

APPENDIX B: “A summary of the governing board’s duties to review the headteacher’s exclusion decision” (excerpt from DfE guidance)

⁴⁹ The governing board may delegate its functions to consider a suspension or permanent exclusion to a designated committee.

⁵⁰ The ability for a chair to review in the case of public exams refers only to maintained schools.
